ST. LOUIS METROPOLITAN AREA

Greater St. Louis perfectly balances convenience and affordability with the advantages of a broadly talented workforce, exceptional educational and cultural institutions, and superb recreational opportunities. This blend, along with our central location and extraordinary transportation assets, makes the region an ideal home for progressive companies competing in and connected to the global economy.

Greater St. Louis, the nation's 21st largest metro, is one of the largest regional economies in the U.S., with a gross metro product of $173 billion. The 15-county bi-state area comprises 2.8 million residents, 1.5 million workers and 88,000 business establishments. Throughout its history, St. Louis was founded as a trading center, grew into a manufacturing powerhouse, expanded its service sector, and developed into a major tech hub. The region ranks as the third most economically diverse U.S. metro area mirroring the national industry mix. Greater St. Louis has competitive strengths in advanced manufacturing, bioscience and health innovation, digital transformation, financial and business services, and mobility and transportation.

Greater St. Louis is home to 22 major headquarters listed on the Fortune 1000, Forbes Global 2000 and Forbes list of America's Largest Private Companies. These companies have locations across the globe, employ hundreds of thousands of people and have hundreds of billions in revenues.

Currently, in the midst of an entrepreneurial renaissance, Greater St. Louis forms more than 6,000 new businesses annually — a number that employs more than 50,000. Venture capital investment in area startups has risen to record levels recently, with more than $400 million invested in 2020.

Greater St. Louis has a Cost of Doing Business index of 93 percent of the U.S. metro average, a key advantage for a large metro area. The region's affordability and income levels offer the seventh-highest standard of living among the 53 largest U.S. metro areas.
